

CONTENTS.

---

JANUARY.—Our opportunities, 2; Report of corresponding secretary, 5; Report of home secretary, 9; Indian womanhood, 15; Work at Harper's Ferry, 16; Home tour of a missionary worker, 18; Notes and gleanings, 20; The meeting at Fairport, 21; Children's niche, 22; A mite song, 22; Work for the children, 22; Learning to write in India, 23; Treasurer's Report, 24; Contributions.

MARCH.—The Master's last command, 25; Retrospect and prospect, 26; Miss Phillips's journal, 28; Balasore zenanas, 31; My India letters, 33; A word to mothers, 35; Zenana inspection, 36; Woman's work for woman, 38; Notes and gleanings, 39; Woman's missionary society of Nova Scotia, 41; Congratulations, 42; Children's niche, 43; Poetry, 43; The children's band, 43; Young people's missionary, 45; Shares in Miss Phillips's salary, 45; Quarrel for shoes, 46; Contributions, 47.

MAY.—An appeal, 49; The woman's society a necessity, 50; Girls' Boarding Hall, Harper's Ferry, 54; Unsifted, 57; A model children's missionary meeting, 58; Correspondence, 60; Extract of a letter from Mrs. J. Phillips, 60; Zenana women, 61; Nova Scotia work, 62; Notes and gleanings, 63; Children's niche, 65; The children's pennies, 65; Work in a Maryland village, 65; Giving song, 69; Shares in Miss Phillips's salary, 69; Constitution, 70; Constitution for auxiliaries, 71; Life members added since last year's report, 71; Contributions, 72.

JULY.—Editorial paragraphs, 73; Our needs, 75; Power of Hindoo caste, 77; How the ants do it, 79; The first missionary, 80; Suggestions, 82; Correspondence, 83; Letter from Miss Crawford, 83; Extracts from a letter from Mrs. J. Phillips, 84; Storer Normal School, 86; Workers in council, 87; At home and abroad, 87; Rhode Island, 88; New Hampshire, 88; Notes and gleanings, 89; Children's niche, 91; Suffer little children, 91; Bhabanie's letter, 91; Young people's missionary, 93; Contributions, 94.

SEPTEMBER.—Editorial paragraphs, 97; Annual report of the Midnapore zenana work, 100; Touching the hem of His garment, 104; Roxy's experience in auxiliaries, 106; What can I do? 108; Speed the gospel day, 110; Correspondence, 111; Contal, 111; Midnapore, 111; Seed bearing fruit, 112; Dantoon, 113; Summer term at Storer Normal School, 114; Workers in Council, 115; Vermont, 115; Western Maine, 115; Notes and gleanings, 116; Children's niche, 118; Enigma, 118; "Thy kingdom Come," 118; Contributions, 120.

NOVEMBER.—Editorial paragraphs, 122; How she helped me, 124; Roxy's experience in auxiliaries, 126; Labor essential to success, 128; Crumbs, 129; Correspondence, 131; A wayside scene, 131; Letter from Balasore, 132; Farewell words, 134; Workers in council, 135; Rhode Island ladies' missionary meeting, 135; New Hampshire, 136; Eastern Maine, 137; Ohio, 137; Central Maine, 138; Notes and gleanings, 139; Children's niche, 141; Sowing and reaping, 141; Questions on India, 141; Sale of goods, 142; Paragraphs, 142; Contributions, 143; Supplement, including annual reports; Prospectus of MISSIONARY HELPER for 1879, see third page of cover.

28781

CONTENTS.

---

JANUARY.—Our opportunities, 2; Report of corresponding secretary, 5; Report of home secretary, 9; Indian womanhood, 15; Work at Harper's Ferry, 16; Home tour of a missionary worker, 18; Notes and gleanings, 20; The meeting at Fairport, 21; Children's niche, 22; A mite song, 22; Work for the children, 22; Learning to write in India, 23; Treasurer's Report, 24; Contributions.

MARCH.—The Master's last command, 25; Retrospect and prospect, 26; Miss Phillips's journal, 28; Balasore zenanas, 31; My India letters, 33; A word to mothers, 35; Zenana inspection, 36; Woman's work for woman, 38; Notes and gleanings, 39; Woman's missionary society of Nova Scotia, 41; Congratulations, 42; Children's niche, 43; Poetry, 43; The children's band, 43; Young people's missionary, 45; Shares in Miss Phillips's salary, 45; Quarrel for shoes, 46; Contributions, 47.

MAY.—An appeal, 49; The woman's society a necessity, 50; Girls' Boarding Hall, Harper's Ferry, 54; Unsifted, 57; A model children's missionary meeting, 58; Correspondence, 60; Extract of a letter from Mrs. J. Phillips, 60; Zenana women, 61; Nova Scotia work, 62; Notes and gleanings, 63; Children's niche, 65; The children's pennies, 65; Work in a Maryland village, 65; Giving song, 69; Shares in Miss Phillips's salary, 69; Constitution, 70; Constitution for auxiliaries, 71; Life members added since last year's report, 71; Contributions, 72.

JULY.—Editorial paragraphs, 73; Our needs, 75; Power of Hindoo caste, 77; How the ants do it, 79; The first missionary, 80; Suggestions, 82; Correspondence, 83; Letter from Miss Crawford, 83; Extracts from a letter from Mrs. J. Phillips, 84; Storer Normal School, 86; Workers in council, 87; At home and abroad, 87; Rhode Island, 88; New Hampshire, 88; Notes and gleanings, 89; Children's niche, 91; Suffer little children, 91; Bhabanie's letter, 91; Young people's missionary, 93; Contributions, 94.

SEPTEMBER.—Editorial paragraphs, 97; Annual report of the Midnapore zenana work, 100; Touching the hem of His garment, 104; Roxy's experience in auxiliaries, 106; What can I do? 108; Speed the gospel day, 110; Correspondence, 111; Contal, 111; Midnapore, 111; Seed bearing fruit, 112; Dantoon, 113; Summer term at Storer Normal School, 114; Workers in Council, 115; Vermont, 115; Western Maine, 115; Notes and gleanings, 116; Children's niche, 118; Enigma, 118; "Thy kingdom Come," 118; Contributions, 120.

NOVEMBER.—Editorial paragraphs, 122; How she helped me, 124; Roxy's experience in auxiliaries, 126; Labor essential to success, 128; Crumbs, 129; Correspondence, 131; A wayside scene, 131; Letter from Balasore, 132; Farewell words, 134; Workers in council, 135; Rhode Island ladies' missionary meeting, 135; New Hampshire, 136; Eastern Maine, 137; Ohio, 137; Central Maine, 138; Notes and gleanings, 139; Children's niche, 141; Sowing and reaping, 141; Questions on India, 141; Sale of goods, 142; Paragraphs, 142; Contributions, 143; Supplement, including annual reports; Prospectus of MISSIONARY HELPER for 1879, see third page of cover.

28781

6;
s
s;
2;
s 3;
3;
a,
a,
s
y, g
y
s, 3;
d ice
e, 2;
a
n
ple
are
ey,
g
4;
d
m
4;
6;
m le
n
9;
1;
n-9,